2017 TRIAL LAWYER OF THE YEAR AWARD
—SUGGESTION FORM—

AWARD CRITERIA AND FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED

The Trial Lawyer of the Year Award shall be principally based on trial results for the 12-month period beginning August 1, 2016 and ending July 31, 2017. The prior record of trials over the previous five years shall be considered as a factor. The recipient must have obtained a verdict in the qualifying 12-month period (bifurcated verdicts are still considered a "verdict.")

In recommending someone for Trial Lawyer of the Year, the following factors should be considered: (a) number of cases tried; (b) the nature and complexity of each case; (c) the significance of each verdict.

Other factors to be considered are the individuals' contributions to and involvement in, the organized trial bar; the individual's standing and reputation in the legal community and the social and legal significance of the member's contribution to the legal profession.

There will be no minimum dollar limit to a verdict as a pre-requisite for the Award.

In cases where a potential nominee is being considered because of a result in a case that was tried by more than one person, the nominee should have had substantial responsibility for the trial.

No person shall be recommended who is not a member in good standing of Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles.

Prior recipients of the Award are qualified for recommendation.

I, _____, would like to suggest the following attorney for 2017 Trial Lawyer of the Year:
